Cordero di Montezemolo	Bricco Gattera	2011	Barolo	26 Mar 2015	16.5	2018 - 2027

Dark evolved ruby. Sweet and a little simple and oaky on the nose. Awkward and gawky with lots of acidity. Very chewy indeed but with a slightly disconcerting veneer of sweetness.

Mid crimson. Low-key ripe nose. Lots of mulch mixed with cough-medicine herbs. Interesting! But a bit brutal on the finish. It certainly makes an impact. Needs time. Uncomfortable at the moment because of its dry tannins but it's admirably clean on the finish.

La Morra. Deep ruby with orange glow. Fresh pine, cherry and raspberry on the nose. Bright and concentrated cherry on the palate with a wonderful, long, tannic, fragrant fruit finish. Shows real breed and power. (WS)
